

SCDA

is on the move

Hello,

It is my pleasure to inform you that SCDA is moving to new offices in Stirling from 20th October 2009.

After many years in York Place, Edinburgh we felt it was time for a change. After thoroughly reviewing our requirements and researching the market, we have decided to relocate to the Stirling Enterprise Park.

The move gives us the advantages of a more modern working environment for our Staff, good transport links and the ability to use shared services.

The move represents only a small part of developing SCDA into a modern, relevant 21st century organisation. Our committees are still doing a lot of work to improve the services we deliver to our members.

One last thing. I can be contacted at chair@scda.org.uk and I would be pleased to hear from you on this or anything else you would like to write to me about.

With best wishes
